Employees should not conduct business that is not in the full spirit of honest and ethical behavior, nor should employees cause other employees, or non-employees, to act or behave in such a manner, either through inducement, suggestion, or coercion. Furthermore, employees should not furnish any false, dishonest, sensitive or confidential information to any individual, business or entity without first consulting with and acquiring the approval of their superior. Employees are expected to report dishonest activities by other employees to their superior. Failure to report such activities is considered a violation of the Standards.

The report will be reviewed with legal counsel in attendance. Any additional action will be on the advice of counsel.

C. Rectification

If the Compliance Officer, in consultation with legal counsel, identifies credible evidence or credibly believes that a State or Federal law, rule, or regulation has been violated, the Compliance Officer will promptly report such violation to the appropriate governmental entity, where such reporting is otherwise required by law, rule, or regulation.

If Hamaspik identifies that an overpayment was received from any third-party payer, the appropriate regulatory (funder) and/or prosecutorial (attorney general/police) authority will be appropriately notified with the advice and assistance of counsel.
